

The Royal Wolverhampton School Swimming Pool

Following the loss of the existing pool to a fire in 2005, we were employed to design the replacement building and integrate the future construction of a four court sports hall. The facilities were expanded to include a seminar room, dance studio, wet and dry changing and a café. The building now acts as the regional base for the ASA.

Title/ location – The Royal Wolverhampton School Swimming Pool Penn, Wolverhampton.

Client/ end user - The Royal Wolverhampton School

Contractor – Moss Construction

Completion date – 2006

Construction Cost - £2.5 Million

